Magic! Magic!

Joy, oh Joy, oh sweet excitement lift our spirits one by one.

Feel the warmth of our embrace you'll never be alone again.

Magic will unite the divided

Strangers will kiss and stars will rise

Let us finally come together

Brothers, sisters, now's the time. Magic will unite the divided.

Strangers will kiss and stars will rise.

Let us finally come together. Brothers, sisters now's the time

Magic will unite the divided

Strangers will kiss and stars will rise

Let us finally come together

Brothers, sisters, now's the time

Did you know that nature loves us as long as we love her back

Earth will be our luscious homeland if we listen to her now

If we listen to her now, listen to her now, with love!

Blessed, blessed, blessed. the way, the way our planets glide through the endless universe.

Think of them and find your way drunk with freedom, high on joy

Think of them and find your way drunk with freedom, high on joy, high on joy, high on joy.

Drunk with freedom, high on joy!

Joy, oh joy, oh sweet excitement lift out spirits one by one.

Feel the warmth of our embrace you'll never be alone again.

Magic will unite the divided. Strangers will kiss and stars will rise.

Let us finally come together. Brothers, sisters, now's the time.

Magic will unite the divided. Strangers will kiss and stars will rise.

Let us finally come together. Brothers, sisters now's the time.

You are fighting by millions, what is it you're looking for?

Look up to the stars and see somewhere up there space is endless

Somewhere up there space is endless

We are millions, of companions. We can make the world a home, a home for all!

Brothers, All of nature's grace all of nature's grace shows grace shows us wonders happen daily nature's grace shows us wonders happen daily. We are millions, of companions.

We can make the world a home, the world a home, the world a home.

We can make the world a home, the world a home, the world a home, the world a home for all!

Magic!

Joy, oh joy, let's come together. Joy, let's come together.

Come together!
